Grover and Mary Ann Garrett have been serving as interim pastor since February 1, 2006. He is a retired minister and missionary of the North North American Mission Board. Bro. Grover served while the church prayed their pastor would return after going through extensive cancer treatment in Dallas, TX.

However, Richard Bull, beloved pastor-teacher of Immanuel passed away November 22, 2006.

Immanuel asked Bro. Grover to remain as interim pastor. Bro. Grover is a native of Tucumcari, having graduated from High School in 1954, he went to Grand Canyon University, graduating in 1958. He and Mary Ann were married five days later, May 30, 1958 and moved to begin seminary in Kansas City, MO that fall. Grover graduated in 1968 from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The Garretts have three children, five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mary Ann plays the piano and organ for the church. She continues as a evangelism ministry consultant for the Baptist Convention of New Mexico and the North American Mission Board.
